

Ukrainian Easter Eggs Workshop

Campbell's Gold Loft - Saturday March 21st, 9 - 3, 2009

Come learn the centuries old art of Pysanky writing or egg painting, as it is known today. A very simple process similar to batiking, allows you to create stunning eggs that can be given as one of a kind gifts or kept as Easter heirlooms. You will be started out on your course with instructor Mary Huntington, first learning about your tools and techniques, then given your first design to duplicate. You will be assisted throughout the process with demonstrations, discussion and most importantly, hands on experience.

A relaxing, all day workshop from 9AM to 3PM will have you confidently producing these brilliant, little treasures.

Workshop price includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> 1 kysta (egg writing stylus)<input type="checkbox"/> beeswax<input type="checkbox"/> candle<input type="checkbox"/> dyes<input type="checkbox"/> paper toweling	Participants will need to bring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> lunch (and beverage?)<input type="checkbox"/> 1 small terrycloth towel<input type="checkbox"/> low candle holder<input type="checkbox"/> pencil<input type="checkbox"/> 6 large white, blemish free eggs that have been washed in soap and water before class.
